SERIOUS DEFECT IN THE BYRD LAW

No Such Thing as "No License" Territory in Commonwealth.

STATE LOCAL OPTION

Omission in Engrossing Act of 1910 Surprises Wets and Drys—Supreme Court's Opinion.

Richmond, July 23.—Contrary to popular belief, a belief held to this time by the prohibition leaders in the State and the liquor interests alike, the Byrd law enacted in 1908, imposing partial prohibition on Virginia has been wiped off the statute books.

Since March 15, 1910, that law has not been in existence. Since March 15, 1910, there has been no "no-license territory" in the State. The elimination of the partial prohibition law is due to an omission made by the clerk who engrossed the amended bill of 1910.

The elimination of the law, due to the engrossing clerk's oversight, has been recognized by the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, so there can be not the slightest scintilla of doubt as to the fact. The omission was discovered by John W. Williams, clerk of the House of Delegates, and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia, when he was engaged in the task of preparing the new law to be printed.

It was then too late to save the awkward situation. The amended bill had been signed by Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd and enacted into a statute. Mr. Byrd evidently having overlooked the engrossing clerk's omission.

The amended bill ,designed further to restrict the liquor traffic, and, which was largely a copy of the original Byrd law, approved March 12, 1908, was thus made an instrument to throw down the barriers and open all the no-license territory to license; in other words, it authorized the issuance of license to engage in the liquor business in every part of the State, except where, after a local option election, the community had voted dry.

By the passage of the original Byrd law, approved March 12, 1908,Virginia was made no-license territory as to all except four specified classes of communities. These four exceptions were: 1. Towns of 500 or more population. 2. Hotels and social clubs at health resorts. 3. Communities contiguous to cities having police protection. 4. Incorporated cities.

Thus, until last January, when a man named Jones came along from Pittsylvania, asking the Supreme Court to annul a verdict rendered against him in the Circuit Court of Pittsylvania County, where he was convicted of selling a gallon of liquor from the small distillery he was operating, the actual situation was not known.

The plea of Jones before the Supreme Court was that there was no such thing as no-license territory in Virginia, and his lawyers directed attention to the elimination of the Byrd law restriction. Attorney General Samuel W. Williams read the amended law and forthwith threw up his hands. He was compelled to acknowledge error in the conviction of Jones, the distiller, whereupon the Supreme Court annulled the verdict, and sent Jones upon his way rejoicing.

So speedily was the case disposed of in the Supreme Court, and happening at a time when the sessions of the Legislature absorbed public interest to the exclusion of everything else, the effect of the decision in the Jones case was realized by but few and did not become generally known.

The situation was discovered only a few days ago by Rev. James Cannon and other prohibition leaders, and it occasioned both astonishment and consternation in the camp of the anti-saloon forces. For several days past Dr. Cannon and his campaign lieutenants have been leading to the elimination by the merest chance of the law which had made a large section of the State no-license territory.

As matters now stand, any qualified voter in the districts hitherto regarded as no-license territory may apply for a license to engage in the sale of liquor, and under proper conditions obtain it.

It was in the copying of section 8 of the original Byrd law of 1908 that the fatal omission was made. The engrossing clerk copied that section as follows: "No license for the sale of ardent spirits shall be granted for such sale in any territory wherein such license is prohibited by law." Then came the omission which eliminated the no-license territory. In preparing the statute to be printed, Clerk Williams, noting the omission, inserted immediately after the word "law," in brackets, the following: ("Nor shall such license, for such sale, be granted except as follows:"). And at this point, in parenthesis, the keeper of the rolls inserted, by way of explanation: ("Clerical omission in enrolling.").

The Supreme Court declined to take any cognizance, however, of this correction, holding that the statute as engrossed was the law, not the statute as printed after the law was enacted .

The immediate effect of the location of the omission will be a little more clearly to define the issue on which the people of Virginia are called upon to vote in September. Prohibition speakers have contended that the State was already committed to the policy of prohibition, having absolute prohibition in the country districts and local option in the cities or where police protection was afforded. The wiping out of the statute of 1908, however, puts the whole State on a local option basis. as a license may now be granted anywhere in the State where the voters of the community have not specifically voted against it. The vote, therefore, in September will be directly between the policy of local option on one hand or State-wide prohibition on the other.

SPEAKS AGAINST RECALL.

Virginia Lawyer Addresses Commercial Law League of America.

Chicago, July 23.—Disapproval of the recall of judges and judicial decisions and a plea for less interference with the judiciary by the legislative branch of government were voiced yesterday by Thomas W. Shelton, of Norfolk, Va., chairman of the American Bar Association's committee on uniform judicial procedure. He spoke before delegates to the convention of the Commercial Law League of America.

In criticising the recall Mr. Shelton referred to the attitude of James II. of England, who declared "I am determined to have 12 lawyers for judges who will be all of my mind."

"That," said Mr. Shelton, "is an example of the recall of judges and judicial decisions which it is well to remember."

The speaker inveighed against what he declared was the practice of nearly every State Legislature to dictating by rigid statutes just how the court could perform its duties. He compared this to giving stringent rules for every move to a locomotive engineer and then to criticise him because his engine ran off the track in following the rules laid down.

ROCKING CHAIR DEATH TRAP.

Pitched Man Into Street,Where Truck Ran Over Him.

New York, July 23—Michael Foley, 36 years old, was killed yesterday by being run over by a heavy truck.

For nearly 50 years Margaret Foley and her husband have kept a furniture store in Greenwich street. Their son Michael Foley a driver, sat in a rocking chair on the sidewalk near the curb. He rocked until one of the rockers dropped off the curb, throwing him into the street. The truck, driven by Lauritz Christe, was approaching, and before it could be stopped, the right fore wheel passed over Foley's body.

SENSATIONS OF CAILLAUX TRIAL

Charge of Betrayal of France to Germany May Be Brought.

HUSBAND IS CHEERED

Former Prime Minister Enters Court Amid Cheers and Hisses—Surgeon's Testimony.

Paris, July 23.—Still playing upon strings of political discord, the fourth session of the trial of Mme. Joseph Caillaux for the murder of Gaston Calmette opened today with reports of an impending sensation.

Despite the statement of Prosecutor Herbaux yesterday that documents reflecting on the honor of Caillaux do not exist, reports are circulating today that an employe of Le Figaro would appear at the trial and there read a document charging that the former prime minister planned to betray France to Germany.

At the same time, reports are circulated that Maitre Labori may soon introduce a witness, a surgeon, who is prepared to declare Calmette did not die as a direct result of the wounds inflicted by Mme. Caillaux, but because of the negligence of surgeons who attended him. With the "brain storm" defense, which is being built up by the noted attorney, the evidence of the surgeon promises to stir all Paris.

The surgeon has declared that Calmette's wounds were not fatal; that had the most elementary precautions been taken his life might have been saved, and that he would have been discharged from the hospital within ten days or two weeks.

STRIKE RIOTS IN RUSSIA

Street Car Services Tied Up in the Capital.

St. Petersburg, July 23—The street car services in the Russian capital was suspended yesterday. The employees of the Central Street Railway Company joined in the general strike called by the workmen as a protest against the drastic measures of the authorities at Baku and other provincial towns against strikers there. Workmen in many trades have joined in the movement and it was estimated this morning that 200,000 men had laid down their tools.

The strike situation took on a very serious aspect yesterday when armed conflicts occurred in the streets and resulted in the wounding of many police, cossacks and strikers.

Just outside the cavital a passenger train on the coast line to Finland was held up by strikers, the engineer was forced to quit the locomotive under threat of being shot and the passengers all driven out of the cars.

The strikers, who numbered 300, then proceeded to cut down the telegraph poles and raise obstructions on the tracks. A detachment of cossacks and gendarmes arrived quickly on the scene and rove o ffthe wreckers. Traffic was convoyed by a locomotive with an armed escort.

At Riga the strike movement was reported to be spreading and it was said that 40,000 men in that city had struck work, while in many other cities in all parts of the empire thousands of men were reported to have left their employment.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The clerk of the gun store in which Mme. Henriette Caillaux purchased the pistol with which she slew Editor Gaston Calmette of Le Figaro, of Paris, testified yesterday that when she bought the pistol she had the dummy of a man placed in the area back of the shop and practiced shooting at that dummy until she could strike the "heart spot" on the target three times out of five.

Four children are dead, two are dying and 40 girls and boys lie in the Bridgeport and Norwalk, Conn., hospitals, more or less seriously injured as a result of the head-on collision of a church mission picnic car with a beer car on the Connecticut Company's trolley line.

Mme. Cayat de Castella, a famous woman aviator, fell 1,000 feet and was dashed to death on the ground at Brussells within 20 feet of her husband yesterday when the automatic parachute in which she attempted a descent from Aviator Champel's biplane failed to work.

Thomas Rogan, a policeman, was shot and killed on the street in Burlington, N. J., early yesterday by Winfield Templeton, a friend, who told the authorities that he had mistaken Rogan for a burglar. Templeton told the police that his wife woke him and told him she heard noises on the sidewalk a few doors from their home. Templeton went to the front door, and when he saw a man standing in front of a grocery store he fired. Templeton was horrified to learn the identity of the man.

Thomas Wolf, 45, a well-to-do business man, of Akron, Ohio, was shot and instantly killed at an early hour yesterday at the home of his son-in-law, Fred Brown, when he was mistaken for a burglar by Anthony Olshoefski, Brown's neighbor. Olschoefski knew the Brown family was away from home and when he saw Wolfe leaving the house he opened fire.

Many Haitian rebels were summarily executed at Cape Haitian yesterday, after the government forces had won a fierce two-hour battle in the streets with 500 revolutionists, who had gained entrance into the town early in the morning before the garrison was awake.

In his testimony before United States Steamboat Inspectors White and Wright, who are conducting his trial in Baltimore, Capt. E. E. Johnson, of the Old Dominion Line steamer Monroe, which was sunk on the morning of January 30, following a collision with the Nantucket, of the Merchants and Miners' Line, yesterday afternoon verified the statement of his first officer, made at the morning session, that he (Johnson) went off in the first lifeboat successfully launched, and that he was the first deck officer to leave the sinking ship. The testimony of the first officer, Gus E. Horseley, showed that the master of the ship had left without leaving any one of his under officers in charge. Horseley also stated that the boat in which the Captain went off was assigned to the chief engineer.

Detectives Cassetti and Olsen were strolling in front of 311 East 111th street, New York, yesterday evening, when their attention was attracted by loud cries and chattering from a point overhead. When they glanced aloft they saw a monkey hammering frantically with its paws on a window in a second-floor apartment. The officers, consumed with curiosity, mounted the stairs, entered the apartment through an unlocked door, and found Mrs. Rose Florella, bound and gagged, in a chair, her home looted and Pasquale, a pet monkey of the household, cavorting about the premises in a frenzy.

The Middle West and Great Lakes Region sweltered yesterday in midsummer heat that reached a maximum at Concordia, Kan., with 100 degrees and ranged generally above 95 at all points of observation. Phoenix, Ariz., alone was hotter than Concordia, but 96 was the average of most of the cities along the lakes and

CONSIDERATION SHOWN AMERICANS

Revulsion of Feeling Is Felt Toward Citizens of United States.

TO RESTORE STATUE

Effigy of George Washington Torn from Pedestal by Rioters During Recent Disturbances.

Mexico City, July 23—Following the order of President Carbajal that the statue of Washington be replaced on the pedestal from where it was torn down during the anti-American riots, a revulsion of feeling toward the United States has been experienced by Mexicans and press alike. The belief that the Americans will evacuate Vera Cruz just as soon as a duly elected president is installed grows every day.

Kindlier feeling toward Americans is being manifested on all sides. Where last fall the American Club was stormed and nearly wrecked by Mexicans, today the Mexican press is coming forward with demands that reparation in full be made to all Americans who suffered. The newspapers are instsing that the person who took the arm of the Washington statue return it at once. The arm has been missing since the statue was torn down.

Carbajal is in complete control of the situation here. Government officials charge that reports that the city is about to fall before Zapata are being circulated by a clique with headquarters in Washington, with a view to obtaining intervention.Certain interests that would profit by intervention are backing this clique, it is declared.

While some desultory exchanges of shots have taken place in the edges of the city, it is believed there is no danger of Zapata effecting an entrance. The government troops are easily strong enough to hold the city against any Zapatista attack. Carbajal is not in need of outside assistance. The parties that have attacked the government outposts have been but mere bands, and were repulsed without any trouble. The capital is tranquil.

WIFE'S CHARGES.

Alleges Cruelty on Part of Husband in Suit for Divorce.

Lawrenceville, Va., July 23.—Bessie Maddux Jones has instituted in the clerk's office in this county a suit for divorce against her susband, Charles W. Jones, on the ground of cruelty and at the same time an action for damages in the sum of $10,000. Mrs. Jones alleges that on July 4, 1914, said Charles W. Jones committed uon her an outrageous and brutal assault, striking her with his hands and fist about the head, face and body, stamping her with his feet in her stomach. That in addition to thus striking, beating and wounding complainant, he seized her by the feet and dragged her from a second-story room of their home in Brunswick County, down the steps to the first floor and out into the yard, and there continued to strike and beat her, sometimes using his hands and fist and sometimes usin ga buggy whip. That he thus continued to assaulther until he had torn and beaten from her body all of her clothes, and in this condition she was forced to flee for her life from place to place about the premises and around the home of said C. W. Jones in the presence of negro men, who had been hired to work on his farm."

Mr. and Mrs. Jones are both young, having been married not quite two years, and have no children. Mrs. Jones was before her marriage Miss Bessie Bagley Maddux, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Maddux, of Nottoway County. The defendant is the oldest son of the late M. A. Jones, of Brunswick county. The families fo both parties are prominent and influential.

POLICE HELD FOR BURGLARY.

Loot at Rockville Center Found in Cops' Chicken Coops.

Rockville, Center, N. Y., July 23.—One-half of Rockville Center's police force of six men are accused of burglary by warrants issued here yesterday. Two of the three men—Patrolmen Amos Veritzan and Henry Wickes—were arrested while on post; the third, Rulof Peterson, on his vacation, is believed to be in Holyoke, Mass.

Three trunks, containing articles of every description, valued at approximately $5,000, were found in the chicken coops of Veritzan and Wickes.

Many unsolved robberies have been reported in the village since last fall, when summer residents closed their houses for the season. The depredations culminated recently in the robbery of Arnold Husser's general store, just across Main street from police headquarters. Mr. Husser recently identified some of his stolen property worn on the street by negro residents of the village and obtained information which resulted in the arrests.

SOUTHERN MORGANIZED.

B. L. Dulaney Charges High Finance Methods in Railway's Management.

Washington, July 23.—Charges that the Southern Railway has been imposed on much as the New Haven is said to have been, through the unloading upon it of branches of little worth at fabulous prices, added an unexpected feature today to the investigation which a Senate sub-committee is making of alleged discriminations against Southern ports in coal rates.

B. L. Dulaney, of Bristol, Tenn., made the charges in connection with an explanation of why he believed he Morgan interests dominated the Southern Railway and directed the action of its officials.

Mr. Dulaney said he once offered to sell the control of the Virginia and Southwestern Railway to the Southern for $500,000. A bond issue of $1,000,000 stood against the line. His offer was refused, he said, but later Henry K. McHarg sold the line to the Southern for about $6,500,000, with a profit estimated at $4,000,000.

The Knoxville and Bristol Railway, sold to the Southern for $500,000, Mr. Dulaney said, was offered for $400,000, and he did not buy because he did not think the line worth that amount.

"These deals show how millionaires are made," declared Dulaney.

Mr. Dulaney finished his direct statement to the committee today, but will go on the stand tomorrow to undergo cross-examination by attorneys for the Southern Railway.

GETS EIGHTEEN YEARS.

Dave Hall, of Dickenson County, Killed Two Deputies on Cumberland.

Freeling, Va., July 23.—Dave Hall, the notorious outlaw moonshiner of of Dickenson County, has just been tried in Judge Burns' court and given eighteen years in the penitentiary. Hall, with Tom Riddle, a colored man, had been operating an illicit still on the lower end of Cumberland Mountain, which the officers had seized and were carrying away, when the two opened fire from ambush, killing two deputies and wounding another.

The colored man confessed and was given the same sentence as Hall.

ALLEGED LETTER OF NEGRO GIRL

Said to Be Damaging to Mrs. Carman, Suspected of Bailey Murder.

REVOLVER VANISHES

While the Home of Dr. and Mrs. Carman Is Baricaded, Circumstantial Evidence Accumulates.

New York, July 23—The officials of Freeport began proceedings today to establish the authenticity of a letter purporting to have been written by Celia Coleman, the negro maid, who is an important witness against Mrs. Florence C. Carman, accused of killing Mrs. Bailey in Dr. Carman's office June 30. The letter is to Jennie Howard, a negro woman, who has an employment agency in Rockville Center, near Freeport. Three months ago when Celia went there she stayed at the Howard home, and it was through the woman's agency she obtained her place with the Carmans. The letter was postmarked New York and written with pencil on three rough sheets of paper. It appears the object was to explain that negroes about Rockvile Centre who had said Celia was bad were mistaken. The letter said its author was living in Thirty-eighth street near Seventh avenue, Manhattan, was signed with Celia's name. It read in part: "I couldn't do as they wanted me to. In the south, when coons don't do as they want them to they lynch them." Here the writing broke into an illegible scrawl.

The letter then referred to the night of the shooting. This part was more legible than the rest. Reference to the firing of the shot was made, after which the letter reads:"Mrs. Carman came in through the back door with her arms folded and said: 'Celia for God's sake go upstairs and stay up there. I never saw her so excited as she was then. Later, after she had gone into another room and I was about to go upstairs Dr. Carman came into the kitchen and said gruffly: 'See that you don't come downstairs until I call you."

Detectives and deputy sheriffs are keeping everyone from entering the Carman home at Freeport. It is understood the District Attorney wants to keep intact conditions existing on the lawn and inside the house so he can take the jury there and show how the murder was committed.

That a 38-calibre revolver was in the Carman home just prior to the murder of Mrs Baily is the statement attributed to a detective.

This announcement discloses one of the strongest links in the chain of circumstantial evidence being welded around the accused woman.

It has been determined by the authorities that Mrs. Baily fell a victim to a bullet from a 38-calibre revolver Both Dr. Carman and Mrs. Carman have emphatically denied that they ever had such a weapon. Despite their contention however, the detective declared in positive terms that District Attorney Smith would be able to establish that the Carman's did have a revolver of this calibre, and that it mysteriously disappeared immediately after the homicide.

No clue as to its wherebouts has been forthcoming in spite of the diligent efforts of the sleuths.

FLYING MATCH KILLS CHILD

Thrown by Careless Person, Sets Fire to Baby's Dress

Philadelphia, Pa., July 23—Five year old Fannie Bernenbum, of No. 638 North Eighth street, who was burned last Sunday night near her home, died yesterday in the Roosevelt Hospital. Fannie was standing on the sidewalk a few doors from her home when some unknown person tossed a lighted match from an upper story window. Her dress became a mass of flames before any one could aid her.

PREPARE FOR LABOR DAY.

Alexandria Trades Council Will Celebrate Occasion at Dyke September 7.

Preparations for an elaborate celebration of Labor Day, on September 7th, are being made by the Alexandria Trades Council. For several years the holiday has been marked by a big all-day outing at the Dyke, four miles below Alexandria, on the Washington-Virginia Railway Co.'s lines . The celebration this year will be held at the same place, on a much rations are being made on a much more elaborate scale than in former years. Committees in charge of the athletic program are now making up a list of events and many handsome prizes will be offered. The speaker's committee expect to secure the attendance of several orators of national reputation.

The General Committee from the Trades Council is as follows: D. Larkin, chairman; M. F. Paggett, John K. Sparrow, L M. Millan, Theodore Mueller, Howard T. Colvin and W. R. Hamilton.

EXPERIENCE OF AUTOISTS.

Man and Niece Robbed of Jewelry and Clothing by Highwaymen.

Kansas City, Mo., July 23.—Miss Mildred McDermitt, an attractive young woman of 20 years, and her uncle, J. H. McDermitt, were held up and forced to taffe off all their clothes by a lone highwayman, who stopped their automobile at a dark and lonely spot in Cliff drive Tuesday night.

Mr. McDermitt and his niece were driving slowly when a dark form sprang from the shrubbery along the road and ordered them to stop.

'Stop tha't automobile or I'll kill you both," commanded the man, pointing a revolver at the occupants. He wore no mask.

"Well, he was not exactly a gentleman," said Miss McDermitt, as she told her story of the hold-up. "He took my diamond necklace, a brooch, and a gold bracelet. Then he told me to extend my fingers so he coul get my rings. After taking two rings he started to relieve my uncle of his valuables. He got a Shriners' ring and a $175 diamond pin from him.

"Then came the worst of all. He asked us whether we wore tailor-made clothes, and then demanded that we disrobe. We pleaded with him, but he emphasized his threat with his revolver.

"He wouldn't let us stop when we had taken off our outer garments—we took off our clothes until we didn't have anything on—not even our shoes.

BAND CONCERT AT CLARENDON

St. Mary's Organization Helps St. Charles Church.

St. Mary's Holy Name Band gave a concert last night at Clarendon, Va., for the benefit of St. Charles Church. The beautiful lawn adjoining the church was decorated with red, white and blue electric bulbs. The different tables were decorated with bunting, making a beautiful scene. The band left on the 6:30 special train and was met at the station at Clarendon by a committee, who escorted them through some of the principal streets. The band drew a large crowd to the lawn fete.

E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS' UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half Price and Guarantee a Cure.

"It is not often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by othe people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said E. S. Leadbeater & Sons to a Gazette man, who dropped into their store," but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard Company in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes us to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents and, although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific that they can come right back to our store and we will cheerfully refund their money."

BLEASE APES ANDREW JOHNSON.

Addressing a wildly enthusiastic audience at Laurens, S. C., yesterday, in his campaign for the United States Senate, Gov. Cole L .Blease told of recent attacks which had been made upon him.

"It is reported that I will be assassinated here today," said Governor Blease. "If the assassin is here there is nothing between me and the dirty coward. Let him shoot."

Governor Blease added that he believed in fatalism. The manner of his death had been predestined, he said, and nothing could change it. He defied assassins.

During the stormy career of Andrew Johnson, who was President of the United States after the assassination of President Lincoln, April 14, 1865, he was often threatened with assassination.

While a heated political contest was progressing in Tennessee, Johnson was scheduled to speak at a public gathering. It was currently reported that should Johnson appear at the meeting he would be killed by one of his foes. Johnson evidently believed in the adage, "Men sworn for always live longest." He, therefore, made his preparations to appear at the gathering. When announced, he mounted the stand and removed from his pockets two pistols He then said: "I understand that I am to be assassinated tonight. If this is a fact, I desire that this feature of the program be enacted first." Johnson then took his seat. After remaining in the chair a few minutes he arose and said: "My information seems to have been incorrect," after which he proceeded to deliver his speech.

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK.

In the proceedings of the Retail Merchants' Association last Tuesday night, published in yesterday's Gazette, it was stated that the Commercial outlook was decidely encouraging, not only in Alexandria, but throughout the section of country adjacent to this city. The crops will be extra large, and there is every indication of a prosperous fall trade.

This is gratifying news to the community, and Alexandria merchants will take advantage of such satisfactory conditions.

While our city has not advanced with a leap, skip and a jump, as have some others in the commonwealth, its growth is healthy.

The careers of some of the most prosperous and prominent people in our city today show that men can prosper in Alexandria as well as anywhere else if they will give their time and close attention to their pursuits. In some cases the proprietors of what are now the leading places of business in the city commenced on a very small scale, their only capital being their industry.

The encouraging words referred to should be a stimulus to all to use every exertion to further expand the trade of Alexandria. We have all the facilities that could be asked for the prompt dispatch of business. Railroads from nearly every point of the compass cross each other's tracks in our city, while our water facilities for transportation are of the best.

CHURCHES TO INVADE MEXICO.

Five Denominations Combine for Evangelical Work.

New York, July 23.—That the Protestant denominations have united to present a common front in relisious and educational work in Mexico, has been announced by Bishop W. F. Oldham, chairman of the general committee representing the various mission boards.

As the result of the conference, it has been agreed to combine under the name of "The Evangelical Church" work in Mexico that has heretofore been carried on independently by the Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Presbyterian, Disciple and Congregational boards. The united churches will aim to secure "the earliest possible evangelization of the entire Mexican nation."

The plans include a more extensive educational program than has ever before been known in Mexico. A great co-educational university will be established, if the plans of the co-operating boards are carried through. At least one high school for each of the sexes will be opened in every mission territory and schools for higher grades will be consolidated. Elementary schools, where domestic and manual arts shall be taught, will be established in connection with all organized congregations. The mission territory will be readjusted, so that no State will be without relisious and educational effort.

THROWS SNAKE TO BITE MAN

Shamokin, Pa., July 23—John Compton, a salesman of this city, is suffering from snake bite received in a peculiar manner. He was watching a battle between a dog and the reptile when the dog took the snake between his teeth and threw it into the air. It landed on Compton's arm and sank his fangs deep in the flesh. He is in a serious condition today.

LEADBEATERS' SUCCESS.

Great Popularity of Plan to Sell Medicine at Half Price and Guarantee a Cure.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, the enterprising druggists, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c bottle at half price.

In addition to selling a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c, Leadbeater & Sons have so much faith in the remedy that they will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart burn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

This latest achievement of science is of great value in curing sick headache. Thousands of women are today free from that painful disease solely through the use of this specific.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

WIDE OPPOSITION TO PROHIBITION LAW

Local Self Government Forces Ready To Give Battle To Drastic Measure.

Richmond, Va, July 23— A succinct statement of the issues involved in the enabling act election of September 22nd, issued today by the Virginia Association for Local Self Government, reduces to tabloid form its case against the enactment of a State-wide prohibitory law. The statement follows:

"Under local option Virginia has eighty-five dry counties. In these counties genuine prohibition prevails solely for the reason that a genuine public sentiment in the local community desires it. They will remain "dry" as long as this condition is supported by public sentiment and no longer.

"PROHIBITION UNDER LOCAL OPTION IS THE IDEAL PROHIBITION

Because it is backed by the public will. It cannot be inforced where public sentiment is hostile to it, as in counties or other self-governing units where a majority favors license. This has been demonstrated over and over again in cities in Maine, Kansas, Iowa, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, and in every other State in which State-wide prohibition has been tried.

"If the enabling act, providing for State-wide prohibition, get a majority of the votes cast in the election to be held on September 22nd, the local option laws now in force in Virginia will be stricken from the statute books. If State-wide prohibition is defeated the local option laws will remain in force.

"Virginin has prospered under local option. Is it the desire of the State to upset laws under which peace, harmony and progress have prevailed, and turn to a drastic law destroying county control and involving the people in the communities in which prohibition is not desired in endless turmoil, strife and bitterness with constant violations of the law?"—Adv.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

State Commission Also Decides Civil Engineering Must Contribute to State

Richmond, July 23.—While sunning for taxable properties, the State tax commissioners yesterday discovered two sources of revenue hitherto untouched by the State. These two pieces of virgin tax soil are civil engineers and baseball clubs, neither of which has hitherto contributed to the support of the State. The commission decided that civil engineering are as much subjects for taxation as are the members of any other profession and that there was no valid reason why circuses should pay heavy license taxes and baseball clubs go scot free. Therefore, the commission feels that at least two new ideas have been found that may possibly be included in the forthcoming tax revision bill.

DEATH OF T. L. REYNOLDS.

Tobacco Manufacturer of Roanoke, Va., Survived by 34 Descendants.

Roanoke, Va., July 23.—Thomas L. Reynolds, a retired tobacco manufacturer, 97 years old, died in a hospital Tuesday night of injuries sustained last May when he fell at his home in this city. He was a veteran of the Civil War.

Reynolds is survived by six children, 24 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren. He was born at Back Creek, Roanoke County. In early life he established a tobacco business in Franklin County.

Negress Slays Assailant.

West Chester, Pa. July 23—Thomas Ridgely, colored, about 23 years old, was shot and killed here Tuesday by Miss Katie Clay, also colored, when Ridgely forced his way into her home on Maple avenue and attempted assault. The girl was alone, preparing the noonday meal for her father and brothers, who are employed in the local wheel works.

When Ridgely accosted the woman she repulsed him and he drew a revolver and threatened her life. She also procured a revolver and shot him in the breast inflicting a wound from which he died on the way to the local hospital

The woman was arrested and lodged in jail awaiting a hearing. She is of excellent reputation, while her assailant has had a bad record for many years, having served term in the House of Refuge, the Huntingdon Reformatory and the pententiary for various crimes, including an attempt to wreck a train on the Frazer branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and attempting to kill his mother with a butcher knife..

SOLDIERS IN CAMP

Gordonsville, Va., July 23—Just as the sun was sinking between the hills overlooking the camp yesterday evening the First Virginia Infantry passedin review in the first regimental parade held at the joint camp of instructions. The review preceded guard mount, and was witnessed by hundred of town's folks who lined the point of vantage around the parade grounds.

The actual work of the camp has now started in earnest. two heavy drills were held yesterday and to top it off, the volunteer soldiers received a ouch of real hardship when supper was delayed in the majority of the companies and skipped in some entirely, on account of the late issue of rations by the regular army commissary The State commissary was cleaned out by the big draft and as it was unable to improve its resurces the boys suffered.. The evil has been corrected and full rations were served today.

ROASTS AS HE LIFTS WIRE

Harvester on Top of Load of Grain is Strangely Set Afire.

Palmyra, Pa., July 23—Harvey, 17 year old son of Grant Krall, a farmer at Buffalo Springs was frightfully burned and narrowly escaped death by electrocution yesterday on the farm of his brother, Grant Krall, here.

Young Krall was riding on top of a wagonload of wheat sheaves when he sought to escape being swept off by low hanging wires. Not knowing the deadly voltage they carried, Krall seized hold to lift them so that his body might pass underneath.

He screamed with pain and fright as the 6600 volts dashed into his body burning his fingers so badly that most of them must be amputated.

Farm hands rescued him and beat out the flames and he is now in the City Hospital with prospects of recovery.

KILLED IN UPSET RACER.

Auto's Contact With Rival Causes a Fatal Accident.

Selinsgrove, Pa., July 23—Mrs. Ernest Felton, of Sunbury, was killed while Robert Logan and his wife were seriously hurt yesterday when an automobile in which they were riding collided with another machine and was overturned. Mrs. Felton was pinned beneath the wrecked car.

Witnesses of the accident declare that the two automobiles were racing on a road near the camp of the Third Brigade here. The driver of the other car, the idenity of which is unknown, is alleged to have attempted to pass the machine occupied by Mrs. Felton and the Logans, when his machine caught a rear wheel of the Logan car and overturned it.

The second machine and its occupants disappeared immediately after the accident.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

For seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Alexandria in 1850 and it came to stay. For sixty-four years it has been the right-hand of commercial Alexandria.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! the merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

"This man must win!"

"He's the man who, from the beginning of time, has proved to the world that it can be done. You can check him but he'll come back and come back until you wreck him. His will is made of whalebone. It has snap but won't snap. Bend it as much as you please but watch out for the rebound! He'll thrive so long as he's alive. The length of his fight is the limit of his faith. It takes more than one hit to make him quit."
